In addition, Cynthia provides executive coaching directly to her clients through her company Executive Passage Her clients include:

Executives and Board of Directors

Leveraging her executive and Board experience in public and privately held companies and her expertise as a certified executive coach and experienced facilitator, Cynthia works with executives and Board of Directors to help implement change in large organizations. She is also a presenter for the Canadian Board Diversity Council (CBDC) 'Get on Board' program and Women in Leadership Forum, aimed at helping women develop a personal action plan and become Board-ready.

Business owners

Cynthia works with business owners, typically those in business at least 5 years with 5 or more employees, and revenues of $500,000 or more, who want to take their business to the next level. Cynthia helps these business owners spend less time working in their business and more time working on their business and see better results, by focusing on the five key areas that provide the biggest growth opportunities including: Sales, Marketing and Advertising; Team Building and Recruitment; Systems; Business Development; and Customer Service.

High Potential Women

As a public company woman CEO, executive, wife and mother, Cynthia is passionate about helping high potential women executives, business owners and professionals breakthrough to leadership. In coaching high potential women, Cynthia draws on her expertise as an executive coach and business consultant as well as her 25 years of experience navigating a male-dominated business world while raising her family. One of the programs Cynthia offers is the Women in Leadership Breakthrough Program, which provides exclusive one-to-one executive coaching to help women executives and women business owners breakthrough the glass ceiling and achieve success.
